SEPT 29, 2-3:15 P.M.

PERFORMANCE BY THE UINDY JAZZ COMBO I

Students perform music by jazz masters such as Dizzy Gillespie, Horace Silver and Thelonious Monk. The group also performs original songs written by its students and tunes composed for Broadway musicals of the early 20th century.

OCT 14, 2-3:15 P.M.

PERFORMANCE BY THE UINDY JAZZ ENSEMBLE

Directed by Mark O’Connor

The Jazz Ensemble is the flagship of the Jazz Studies Program at the University of Indianapolis. Students in this ensemble perform music by such well-known big bands as Duke Ellington, Count Basie and Woody Herman, as well as modern-day composers such as Maria Schneider and Jim McNeely.

Saxophonist Mark O’Connor is the director and an active performer, composer, and educator throughout the Midwest. He has shared the stage with such notable jazz musicians as Arturo Sandoval, Rufus Reid, and Bob Mintzer.

OCT 29, 2-3:15 P.M.

PERFORMANCE BY THE UINDY PEP BAND

Directed by Dr. Jon Noworyta

The UIndy Pep Band performs at all home football games, homecoming activities and women and men’s basketball games. They have been invited twice to perform at the NCAA Women of the Year celebration—a national event held in Indianapolis.

Dr. Jon Noworyta is the Director of Instrumental Activities and Bands at the University of Indianapolis. He conducts the Symphonic Wind Ensemble and Pep Band and teaches courses in Conducting and Music Education.

Come early to get parked. In case of rain, the event will be cancelled by 10 a.m. Check dementiafriendsindiana.org/events-calendar for cancellation notices.
